

The National Alliance of Black School Educators

37th Annual Conference

presents:

THE Indianapolis Cultural Tours

Come and explore through storytelling, theatrical performances and interactive activities, the history, culture and the African American experience that has shaped Indianapolis, the state of Indiana and the entire country.

Cultural Tour I

Wednesday, November 18, 2009

8:30 a.m. – 5:30 p.m.

- Madam C. J. Walker Theater Tour: Come learn about America's first African American female millionaire.
- Indiana State Museum: Check out various artifacts and go back in time with the help of a presentation by the Legacy Theatre.

- Soul Food Lunch: Area Soul Food Restaurant
- Crispus Attucks Museum Tour: The Crispus Attucks Museum professionally houses treasures from the first all-black high school in the state of Indiana, with its history-making African American community.
- Eiteljorg Museum: The Eiteljorg Museum provides an interactive understanding of the art, history and cultures of the American West and the indigenous people of North America.

Cost of the Cultural Tour I: $37.00 (includes Lunch)

Cultural Tour II

Saturday, November 21, 2009

8:30 a.m. – 4:30 p.m.

- Bethel AME Church: Indianapolis's oldest African American Church & Underground Railroad Stop
- Children's Museum of Indianapolis: Explore the Children's Museum and visit the Power of Children Exhibit and Storytelling Gallery.
- Lunch
- Freetown Village: Come learn about the lives of African Americans throughout Indiana's history through theater, storytelling, heritage workshops, music and much, much more.

Cost of the Cultural Tour II: $35.00 (includes Lunch)

To reserve a space on one or both of the tours, please visit www.nabse.org and go to the 2009 Conference page where you will find the reservation form.

Advanced Registration is preferred!